

2

Beverly had not told her parents where she was going. It started to rain, and the wind started to blow harder. A willow tree almost fell on her head. She was scared and scrambled out of the pond.

