Just as Cody was about to bite her tail, Beverly slid into the water! She swam underwater as fast as she could, back to her lodge. Her parents and brother were so happy to see her! She told them all about her adventure--even about Cody Coyote! Her dad warned her never to wander off without telling them. She promised and then snuggled next to her mother. As she drank some warm milk, her mother whispered to her that she was proud of how brave she was. Soon they were all asleep. In a little while it would be night, and that meant that they would all have to get up and go to work on their dam.
